1. Aims

Our SEN policy and information report aims to:

- Set out how our school will support and make provision for pupils with special educational needs (SEN)
- Explain the roles and responsibilities of everyone involved in providing for pupils with SEN

Our vision is:

Enabling everyone to reach and go beyond their potential

Our values are:

RESPECT – we are polite, we understand difference and we are happy to celebrate when others do well.

ENCOURAGE – we help each other and want all members of the school community to do their best and be kind to each other.

ACHIEVE – we work hard to meet our goals and feel proud of our achievements. We show resilience when we face challenges.

CARE – we help each other and look after each other. We keep everyone safe, and physically and mentally healthy.

HAVE FUN – we make sure that we enjoy our learning and our friendships.

We cater for young people aged 3-19 with an Education, Health and Care Plan (EHCP). The school works tirelessly with other key professionals to meet the priority learning goals set within the EHCP for each individual. Therefore the core offer at the school is highly personalised. Learners at the school have access to high ratios of staff support and a wealth of SEN expertise, including onsite speech and language and occupational therapy.

2. Legislation and guidance

This policy and information report is based on the statutory Special Educational Needs and Disability \(SEND\) Code of Practice and the following legislation:

- Part 3 of the Children and Families Act 2014, which sets out schools' responsibilities for pupils with SEN and disabilities
- The Special Educational Needs and Disability Regulations 2014, which set out schools' responsibilities for education, health and care (EHC) plans, SEN co-ordinators (SENCOs) and the SEN information report

3. Definitions

A pupil has SEN if they have a learning difficulty or disability which calls for special educational provision to be made for them.

They have a learning difficulty or disability if they have:

- A significantly greater difficulty in learning than the majority of others of the same age, or
- A disability which prevents or hinders them from making use of facilities of a kind generally provided for others of the same age in mainstream schools

Special educational provision is educational or training provision that is additional to, or different from, that made generally for other children or young people of the same age by mainstream schools.

4. Roles and responsibilities

4.1 The SENCO

The named SENCO is Maggie Loveday, however as we are a special school the SENCO for each class is the class teacher.

They will:

- Work with the headteacher and SEN governor to determine the strategic development of the SEN policy and provision in the school
- Have day-to-day responsibility for the operation of this SEN policy and the co-ordination of specific provision made to support individual pupils with SEN, including those who have EHC plans, which is all of our learners.
- Provide professional guidance to colleagues and work with staff, parents, and other agencies to ensure that pupils with SEN receive appropriate support and high quality teaching
- Advise on the graduated approach to providing SEN support
- Advise on the deployment of the school's delegated budget and other resources to meet pupils' needs effectively
- Be the point of contact for external agencies, especially the local authority and its support services
- Liaise with potential next providers of education to ensure pupils and their parents are informed about options and a smooth transition is planned
- Work with the headteacher and governing board to ensure that the school meets its responsibilities under the Equality Act 2010 with regard to reasonable adjustments and access arrangements
- Ensure the school keeps the records of all pupils with SEN up to date

4.2 The governors

The governors will:

- Designate a named governor to monitor

- Help to raise awareness of SEN issues at governing board meetings
- Monitor the quality and effectiveness of SEN and disability provision within the school and update the governing board on this.
- Work with the headteacher to determine the strategic development of the SEN policy and provision in the school

4.3 The headteacher

The headteacher will:

- Have overall responsibility for the provision and progress of learners with SEN and/or a disability

4.4 Class teachers

Each class teacher is responsible for:

- The progress and development of every pupil in their class
- Working closely with any teaching assistants or specialist staff to plan and assess the impact of support and interventions and how they can be linked to classroom teaching
- Working with the Deputy Headteachers and Assistant Headteachers to review each pupil's progress and development and decide on any changes to provision
- Ensuring they follow this SEN policy

5. SEN information report

5.1 The kinds of SEN that are provided for

Our school currently provides additional and/or different provision for a range of needs, including:

- Communication and interaction, for example, autistic spectrum disorder and speech and language difficulties
- Cognition and learning, for example, dyslexia, dyspraxia,
- Social, emotional and mental health difficulties, for example, attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD),
- Sensory and/or physical needs, for example, visual impairments, hearing impairments, processing difficulties, epilepsy
- Moderate/severe/profound and multiple learning difficulties

5.2 Consulting and involving pupils and parents/carers

All students who come to the school have an EHCP.

It is essential that our communication with parents is strong as research shows that a joined up approach will result in the best possible outcomes for learners.

Parents/carers are kept informed through regular conversations, daily DOJO messages, EFL, parentmail, parents evenings, learning conferences, and the EHCP annual review meeting.

5.3 Assessing and reviewing pupils' progress towards outcomes

We will follow the graduated approach and the four-part cycle of assess, plan, do, review where we will carry out a clear analysis of the pupil's needs. This will draw on:

- The teacher's assessment and experience of the pupil
- Their previous progress, attainment and behaviour
- Other teachers' assessments, where relevant
- The individual's development in comparison to their peers and national data

- The views and experience of parents/carers
- The pupil's own views, as much as possible
- Advice from external support services
- Moderation meetings
- Conversations with parents/carers
- Relevant Assessment will be reviewed at termly.

All teachers and support staff who work with the pupil will be made aware of their needs, the outcomes sought, the support provided, and any teaching strategies or approaches that are required. We will regularly review the effectiveness of the support and interventions and their impact on the pupil's progress.

5.4 Supporting pupils moving between phases and preparing for adulthood

We organise our 245 learners into 5 areas depending on age, and how they access their learning:

- Starting out – Early Years and Key Stage 1
- Engage, Explore and Challenge – Key Stages 2, 3 and 4
- Moving On – Key Stage 5

Class size varies between 6 and 13 learners. The level of staffing provided in each class is high and will depend on the need of the students in each class, there is a minimum of 4 staff (1 Teacher and 3 Teaching Assistants).

We will share information with the school, college, or other setting the pupil is moving to. We will agree with parents and pupils which information will be shared as part of this.

As pupils move into new settings bespoke arrangements will be made to manage this as effectively as possible, this could include a number of induction sessions in their new setting.

5.5 Our approach to teaching pupils with SEN

Teachers are responsible and accountable for the progress and development of all the pupils in their class.

High quality teaching is our first step in responding to pupils who have SEN. This will be differentiated for individual pupils.
